

The League of Women Voters of Weston will hold its annual “Politics & Pie: A Conversation with Our State Legislators” on Saturday, June 1, 2024 from 11:00 – 12:00 p.m. at the Weston Public Library – on the Library lawn weather permitting, indoors if needed.

The event, moderated by League Steering Committee member Carol Baldwin, will feature a presentation and discussion with State Senator Ceci Maher (D, Senate District 26) and State Representative Anne Hughes (D, House District 135). They will provide a summary of the accomplishments of the recently completed legislative session, share their views about challenges ahead, and answer your questions.

Sweet and savory hand and full-sized pies and beverages from Georgetown’s Old Mill Market & Café will be available for purchase at the event.

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan organization that encourages active and informed participation of citizens in government and seeks to increase understanding of major public policy issues. For more information, visit: lwwwestonct.org.
